Volunteers Needed!

What's new at Valley View Community Food Bank? Jesse Ramirez, Valley View Community Food Bank founder and director, and his team of workers are ready to start work on their new location once they receive permits from Maricopa County. They plan to move into the new site in early fall. As volunteers, we are excited for all who regularly work at Valley View and the anticipation of the new space.

In July, we had a smaller group of Valley View volunteers. Though we may be small, we are mighty! Thank you for volunteering! The important thing is the time we spend together, getting to know new people, sharing updates about our lives and happenings at Willowbrook with the added factor making a difference in what we do.

Harold Glick joined us for the first time. He and Janet make deliveries twice a month to Linda's home with egg cartons and grocery bags for Valley View. It was a new experience for Harold to see why grocery bags are so important at Valley View. Thanks to all who donate time, money, grocery bags and egg cartons to Valley View!

Changing Lives!

A portion of the Willowbrook 2024 Easter offering was donated to Habitat for Humanity. For over 20 years, Willowbrook has supported Habitat either by physically helping with a build or eventually becoming part of the Mighty United Methodist Coalition; a group of Methodist churches in the greater Phoenix area, who join to fund and build Habitat homes.

Chief Development Officer, J. David Smith, expressed his appreciation in a recent letter. "We are incredibly grateful for your recent gift to support Habitat for Humanity Central Arizona! Your generosity and kindness will ensure that more Arizona families have a decent, safe, and affordable place to call home. It is through the compassion of our amazing donors like you that we are able to help local families realize their dreams of home ownership in safe neighborhoods."

"Thank you so much for being part of the Habitat family. Your support is changing lives."

Willowbrook United Methodist Church volunteers who made a difference by working at Valley View Community Food Bank in July.

Fran Triguero, Barb Pawlikowski, Linda Borton, Jesse Ramirez, founder and director of Valley View Community Food Bank, Paula and Richard Condit, Loren Littlefield, and Harold Glick.

Good News (or not)

The name of this newsletter from Willowbrook United Methodist Church is "Good News". Most of the time it is! Today, I am not so sure. For you see, today I am going to start by talking about health and exercise. Some of you enjoy exercise and working out and so this article is right up your alley. No big deal, right? Not so for all of us! An article I looked at on this subject used phrases like strength training, exercise regularly, high intensity interval training, etc. Oh my! That's not exactly what I was looking for. Some of you might join me in this reluctance. I was looking for some basic health routines like walking, responsible dieting, getting enough sleep. I did find information that was useful to me, but in the health portion of the article it talked about something that jumped out at me and that is what I want to address today. Along with things like diet and exercise the article mentioned the importance of stress management. Now this one jumped out at me because I frequently talk to folks who allow stress to creep into their lives in unhealthy ways. Now I think we can assume that everyone experiences stress. I think that this is a natural part of life. My concern is that some folks allow stress to rise to unhealthy levels. I think that this is what is meant by stress management. It's the management part that I think the church can help with.

Stress exists because life can be hard. We all deal with stress but people of faith have learned some very valuable things about stress. Verses like the following teach us that our Lord helps us. We can trust in God to walk with us on the difficult paths. When we learn this, it is like the child learning to trust the steady hand of a parent when walking by a creek bed to look at fish. By ourselves the rocky riverbed can be daunting but with mom or dad it becomes an adventure.

*May the Lord of peace himself give you his peace no matter what happens.
The Lord be with you all.
2 Thessalonians 3:16*

God is that reassuring hand. God is that reassuring presence that is with us always. God is that reassurance that we remember when we think of the 23rd Psalm.

"...The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want..."

My own faith has been strengthened by "Willowbrookers" in the hospital, who in spite of dire circumstances, trust in the Lord with the greatest of peace. They are folks who have known God a long time and have trusted Him a long time. They know peace. Their lives teach others peace. Doctors, nurses and even pastors learn from them. May God's peace be with us all!

Maybe the peace of God can even calm us down when we consider exercising! OK! I'm game to step it up. Literally!

See you in church!

Rev. Gary Kennedy

Following Christ

To have faith in Christ means, of course, trying to do all that he says. There would be no sense in saying you trusted a person if you would not take his advice. Thus, if you have really handed yourself over to [Christ], it must follow that you are trying to obey him.

But trying in a new way, a less worried way. Not doing these things in order to be saved, but because he has begun to save you already. Not hoping to get to heaven as a reward for your actions, but inevitably wanting to act in a certain way because a first faint gleam of heaven is already inside you.

—C.S. Lewis, Mere Christianity

We want to thank everyone for helping us celebrate our 70th wedding anniversary on June 6th. We were so happy to have our 7 children and 4 spouses with us. They "muchly" enjoyed our Church and the services.

Thank You!

Be The Pebble!

In a recent letter from Dean Scheinert, Director of Justa Center, he wrote, "We have all experienced the ripple effect of a pebble dropped into a body of water. The ripples keep going until they reach the edge. Sometimes life is just like that, with one bad break setting off a ripple effect that's hard to stop."

But that pebble dropped into the water can also create a positive ripple. Although we are in the middle of summer, Willowbrook continues to support the work of Justa Center. From June through October, every month on the 4th Monday, we prepare and deliver 80 brown bag "to-go" meals for Justa Center clients. Each meal consists of 2 sandwiches, a snack item, and a dessert.

Would you like to be a pebble creating a positive ripple? Perhaps you can help make sandwiches or bake a dessert? If you would like to help contact Judy Arkwright.

2024 Desert Southwest Annual Conference

June 13-16, 2024

Making A Way

Isaiah 43:18-19; Jeremiah 29:4-7, 10-14

The following attended representing Willowbrook UMC:

Clergy: Rev. Gary Kennedy, Rev. Ruth Blum, Rev. Lois Hedden
Laity: Russ Koan, Lynn Koan, Debb Pearson, Esther Lloyd

The Conference Plenary Session began Thursday with the Opening Worship including the Episcopal Address from Bishop Carlo A. Rapanut, where he mentioned how uncomfortable it is to be "dislocated...we are not where we used to be and not where we want to be" not only in the world, but also in the church. He drew us back to the passage from Isaiah 43: 18-19 where the Israelites were experiencing dislocation in Babylon. He challenged us to live into the fullness of life that God offers us. Stating we are in exile from the abundant life Jesus offered and need to engage in the hard work of healing, beginning by becoming healthy individuals that lead to healthy churches which lead to a healthy world. He committed to lead the beginning of this process. He asked, "Can we commit to being a healthy church that is working towards a healthy world by the time we turn 50?"

During the Laity Session, Alberta Farnsworth was re-elected as DSC Lay Leader for the next four years. Following this we heard informational presentations by Christy Lee of TMM, a ministry in the southern portions of the state that provides affordable housing for single moms, seniors, and veterans; and "Our Story" by Samuel Fayuant about the history and traditions of the Tohono O'odham.

After lunch, the clergy rejoined the laity for the Plenary session. All recommendations from the Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and the Conference Personnel Committee passed as a group on the Consent Calendar.

On Friday, we continued to vote on the remaining rule changes, resolutions and committee recommendations. All committee recommendations were approved, and all resolutions and rule changes passed with one exception. The resolution that failed was:

Resolve the DSC divest from fossil fuels: By September 1, 2024, the DSC shall not knowingly make investments in any company or entity whose core business activity involves the production of coal, petroleum, or natural gas. And that the DSC requests that the Desert Southwest UMC Foundation add a similar investment screen to its holdings and investments, also by September 1, 2024.

Those that passed did so by a large margin. Here is the list with the results:

- Adoption of the 2025 Desert Southwest Annual Conference budget
- Resolve to foster ways in which pronouns are encouraged, and by example, all Conference staff and Conference-level staff, including the Cabinet, display their pronouns. Additionally, all events requiring registration would include an opportunity to choose pronouns and have them printed on nametags.
- Resolve to reunite the New Faith and Vital Faith Committees into one New and Vital Faith Committee.
- Created the Pasifika Islanders Commission (Task Force of Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee)

The following rule changes were also approved.

- Changed the official definition of the Conference Committee on Episcopacy
- Changed what constitutes the official bar of the Annual Conference
- Update Section IV of the Journal, which lists and defines Conference Boards, Committees, and Agencies, and match Section II of the Journal.

Related to the recent General Conference, the DSC also resolved to:

- Participate in the consultation process requesting feedback about the General Book of Discipline.
- Receive the adoption of Worldwide Regionalization by the General Conference, taking the next steps to complete the decision-making process after providing and participating in educational opportunities over the next twelve months, ensuring fully informed engagement at the 2025 Annual Conference, where ratification can be considered.

After our hard work on Friday, Saturday dawned as a day of presentations. The keynote address was presented by Dr. Ashley Boggan, General Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History. She began by saying "sometimes we need to reach back to what we have lost in order to move forward." From this, she proceeded to relate some stories she felt we need to reclaim in order to move forward as Methodists. She called this "Wesleyan vile-tality" and defined it as "A willingness to look beyond today's acceptable practices, standards, and norms and bend the rules in order to ensure that more and more persons can be included within the Kingdom and that all persons, no matter who they are, how they identify, whom they love or how they live can know and experience the love of God, can know their own self-worth, and can then grow to love themselves and others." We were surprised to hear how John Wesley moved forward in his life to do just that! (Dr. Boggan's complete talk is available for download on the DSC Annual Conference home page.). Later, we heard presentations on Immigration, and from Arizona Faith Network Heat Relief Program.

We finished the day by attending the Service of Commissioning and Ordination at Catalina UMC with Bishop Karen Oliveto preaching. Those ordained, commissioned, or received into associate membership were:

- Ordained as Elders: Sylvia Harris, Diamond Pate
- Commissioned as Provisional Elder: Lauren Coffman
- Commissioned as Provisional Deacon: Kayla Flannery Johnson
- Recognition of Orders: Rev. Chan Hong Kim

NOTE: For more information on these listed items and more see the Annual Conference website (<https://dscumc.org/annual-conference/>)

On Sunday morning before leaving for home, we were given an update on the Conference Mission Project, and invited to attend the 2025 Annual Conference in Las Vegas, NV.

Respectively submitted,

How do I get my event in print?

As you know there are several ways events are advertised, The Good News, E-News and the Sunday insert. In addition, we have the electronic sign. There are certain criteria for each of these advertising methods. Here is an explanation of what is needed, when and how often it will appear in each publication.

Good News: The monthly newsletter is filled with upcoming events, articles of information, a monthly calendar, birthdays of persons who are 90 and over, anniversaries of couples married 50 or more years and various other articles of interest. Pictures are included when space permits. The Good News is printed and mailed at the end of the month for the upcoming month. You can also request that it be emailed if you prefer. The deadline for submitting articles is the 4th of the month prior to publication; for example articles for September newsletter is by August 4th. Articles may be submitted in writing or by email to betty@willowbrookumc.org.

E-News: This is an email that is sent out twice a week, Sunday and Thursday mornings. The E-News is designed to let you know weekly events that are happening and who will be preaching that weekend along with the sermon title and scripture. The Thursday E-News includes a "Spot of God" which is a devotional by either Laurie Lineberry or Rev. Gary. You will also find links to other Methodist Connections. To receive the ENews, you can sign up on the website or send an email to the office using the email address you want subscribed. ENews articles are also sent to betty@willowbrookumc.org. The deadline for submitting information is Monday for inclusion in both publications.

Bulletin Insert: An insert is included in both the Saturday and Sunday printed bulletins. The insert includes a calendar for the upcoming week and advertising events that require a sign up to attend or are requesting items to be brought for donations, such as food. These articles only run for 2 weeks limited by space and the number of events taking place. Deadline for inserts is the Monday prior to the weekend to be included and sent to bev@willowbrookumc.org. If you need a table and sign for your event that must be included in the email. Tables should have someone there to answer questions. Saturday tables and signs are the responsibility of the group.

Electronic Sign: We are always willing to advertise on the sign but please remember the space is very limited, three short lines, the event, the date, and the time, is pretty much all that can be included. The electronic sign is advertising to the public which means anyone reading the sign may show up to the event. You must be ready to warmly include anyone that drops in at your event. Requests for items on the sign need to be sent to bev@willowbrookumc.org.

We attempt to print articles as written, but there are times that items need to be edited to, but no necessary information will be left out.

Please, if you have a question come directly to the office. We don't always have the answer, nor do we always get it right, but we try our best. It is always best to speak directly with us than to get information second- or even third-hand.

Bev & Betty

Willowbrook Readers Club!

Hooked on Books meets the 4th Thursday of each month in the church library at 1:30 p.m. If you love to read, come and join us for great fellowship and discussion! New members are always welcome! Here are the books we plan on discussing the next few months:

A GriefShare support group is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. Through this 13-week group, you'll discover what to expect in the days ahead and what's "normal" in grief. Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, you'll learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability—and gain solid support each step of the way.

At Willowbrook GriefShare meets each Wednesday from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. in the Library Lounge. You don't have to be a member, or attend the church, to be a part of the GriefShare program.
